DEAR PARISHIONERS:

We are all subject to rules and laws. There are rules to organize traffic, life in cities, relationships between companies and many other things. This has been like that for many years. That's why the scribe approached Jesus. To know, what is the most important of all the commandments. Jesus' answer is clear: the most important thing is the relationship with God and with neighbors. That relationship is the same in both cases. It must be a love relationship.

First consequence: God is not feared. God is loved. Our relationship with God is a love relationship for the simple reason that he loved us first. We are His creation, the work of His hands. Our relationship with Him is as deep or deeper as what we have with our parents. Only those who have had the experience of being parents will be able to imagine, and not perfectly, the love with which God loves us.

Second consequence: there is no difference between the relationship with God and with our neighbors. Loving is the only possible way of relating to the brothers. The followers of Christ should not live with hatred, nor anger or resentment. The other is always a brother to love. But what is love? To love you is to approach each other with solemn respect, is to give you permission to be who you are and to be what you are. An expression of love is to attend your needs, to serve you. Love is to demand you respect and let you know what I need and expect from you. Thanks to Jesus we see that the Father's happiness consist precisely in seeking our happiness.

Today, Jesus reminds us that those who love may not know much theology or have much culture, but are those who are closest to the Kingdom of God. Let us be one of them.

Letter my Grandma:

Dear Grandma: it is always a pleasure to write to you. I am on vacation enjoying an already necessary rest. I do not know if I deserve it. I remind you that we all have the right to do a little less than we can. Holidays and rest are important in the pursuit of our ideals, to keep our dreams alive, and advance our purposes. You should do the same: take a vacation, give yourself time to organize your options and priorities. Recently we said goodbye, but I'm missing you already.

Todos estamos sometidos a normas y leyes. Hay reglas para organizar el tráfico, la vida en las ciudades, las relaciones entre las empresas y muchas otras cosas. Así ha sido desde hace muchos años. Por eso el escriba se acercó a Jesús. Para saber, cuál es el más importante de todos los mandamientos. La respuesta de Jesús es clara: lo más importante es la relación con Dios y con los hermanos. Esa relación es la misma en ambos casos. Debe ser una relación de amor.

Primera consecuencia: a Dios no se le teme ni se le adora. A Dios se le ama. Nuestra relación con Dios es una relación de amor por la sencilla razón de que él nos amó primero. Somos creación suya, obra de sus manos. Nuestra relación con él es tan profunda o más como la que tenemos con nuestros padres. Sólo los que han tenido la experiencia de ser padres, podrán imaginarse, y no perfectamente, el amor con que Dios nos ama.

Segunda consecuencia: no hay diferencia entre la relación con Dios y con los hermanos. Amar es la única forma posible de relacionarse con los hermanos. Los seguidores de cristo no debemos vivir con odio, ni con rabia o resentimiento. El otro es siempre un hermano al que amar. Pero, ¿qué es eso de amar? Amar es acercarse al otro, es darle permiso de ser quien eres y de ser como es. Una expresión de amor atenderle en sus necesidades, servirle. Es ponerle límites al mismo tiempo que respetamos sus intereses. De hecho, en Jesús comprobamos que la felicidad del que ama está precisamente en procurar la felicidad del otro.

Hoy Jesús nos recuerda que los que aman es posible que no sepan mucha teología ni tengan mucha cultura pero son los que están mas cerca del Reino de Dios. Así se lo dijo Jesús al escriba. Así la Iglesia nos recuerda hoy nuestro principal mandamiento. Quiero seguir aprendiendo contigo a amar más y mejor. Regresarán las clases de Autoestima el martes 20 de Noviembre a las 7:00 pm.

Carta mi tía Tota:

Estimada tía Tota como siempre es un placer escribirte. Te cuento que estoy de vacaciones disfrutando de un ya necesario descanso. No sé si me lo merezca. Te recuerdo que todos tenemos derecho de hacer un poquito menos de lo que podemos. Las vacaciones y el descanso son importantes en la consecución de nuestros ideales y para mantener vivos nuestros sueños y avanzar en nuestros propósitos. Tú deberías hacer lo mismo: tomarte unas vacaciones, regalarle un tiempo para ti y organizar tus opciones y tus prioridades. Hace poco que nos despedimos y ya te estoy extrañando.

Please return the envelope in the collection basket or deposit into the Church's office mailbox. These envelopes will be placed on the altar during the Masses.

Holiday Donations for the Pantry

Our Parish Pantry continues to distribute food to our needy brothers and sisters in the community every Tuesday morning because of your continued generosity and the generosity of non-parish donors. Giving food to the hungry is one great way to make the face of God visible here in our Parish. In the last 12 months, we distributed 5,788 bags including 1,163 bags for our homeless guests.

The holidays are coming up and we give each of our guests a gift from our parish in addition to the regular bag they get. Monetary donations will help our staff to shop for food and hygiene items to distribute. Your generosity in this manner is one of the ways that has kept us going for almost 30 years. The Knights of Columbus will sponsor a Thanksgiving dinner for our guests as they had done in the past years.

There are envelopes in the pews marked with a turkey and a tree that can be used for your donations. You can drop the envelope in the collection basket or turn it in to the rectory. Non-perishable items too will help our ministry and are greatly appreciated. Your compassion for the poor and your continued generosity will surely be rewarded in heaven.

Thank you and may God bless you always!

Gratefully, the Pantry Staff
